Jack grew up in Chesterland, Ohio where he has always had a passion for business and helping other people. When Jack was ten years old, he started his own landscaping company, Makee Landscaping. Jack successfully managed the company for eight years and developed relationships with many people in his community. Through Makee Landscaping, he discovered how to lead a team, grow a business, and most importantly, always keep his clients happy.

After high school, Jack attended Miami University in Oxford, Ohio where he studied Finance and Business Analytics. Miami taught him the importance of education and how to collaborate with his peers to solve complex problems. On campus, Jack was involved in a student-run consulting firm, East Bridge Consultancy, where he served as the Vice President and Director of Corporate Outreach. These experiences continued to develop Jack's passion for helping others and allowed him to understand problems that businesses face daily.

Jack graduated from Miami University in May of 2021 and currently resides in Lyndhurst, Ohio with his fiancée. He is passionate about living an active lifestyle dedicated to participating in activities in the outdoors. You can find him cruising around the streets of Northeast Ohio on his road bike, fly-fishing the local rivers or taking his dog, Dutton, on walks in the Cleveland Metroparks!

Jack is devoted to giving back to his community and the environment through participating in multiple volunteer organizations in Ohio. He is currently a member of the Geauga County Ducks Unlimited Chapter, where Jack aims to protect and enhance waterfowl habitat.
